

AVVA- A CULTURAL FEST

Our College has been celebrating every year in a unique way. The uniqueness of this celebration is comprised all the festivals of Karnataka in 2013-14, and in 2014-15, displayed different customs and traditions, various costumes, folk-dances, festivals, rites and rituals of different states. In 2015-16, the students our College displayed most gracefully the village life, the routine life of a farmer and set on a stage various rural activities like rural market, rural sports and dances including a village home and its different food items apart from displaying spades and tools used in the fields.

These are all different and gay full activities of rustic life and were all recorded minutely and being telecasted frequently in different channels like TV9, Public TV, E TV, B TV, In Gulbarga and others with their own attractive captions, around the year. Further, this ambitious event was covered with large photos in the leading Kannada daily news papers like Prajavaani, Vijaya Karnataka, Vijaya Vaani, and Kannada Prabha and almost all other Kannada daily news papers applauding the gainful efforts of the College students with the able guidance of Principal and all staff members as their mentors. The print media proclaimed that the Avva Habba celebration was most useful and eye-opening as it enacted the formidable causes of farmers' suicide following their crop loss and encouraged them to face the life courageously.

Over all, the celebration of Avva Habba took the viewers to the county life and reminded them that how natural, useful and potential in the back ground of modern technology and city life.
